

BEGIN

(Phillip Randolph Perry, Rachel Barrentine)

VERSE 1

You know I've been hurting
I've let fear steal my life
And these scars aren't healing
On my own, I have tried
But, You restore the broken
Give strength to the weak
Lift the poor in spirit
Turn chaos into peace

CHORUS

When I feel all my hope is gone
No matter how dark it might seem
Won't believe, the lies I've been told
I am loved unconditionally
It's not over, no matter where I've been
In You my new life can begin

VERSE

So when my world is shaking
And it knocks me off my feet
I'll get up, and keep on moving
This won't get the best of me

BRIDGE

Can begin again with...
Grace that You freely give, joy that will never fade
Power to overcome obstacles in my way
In Your Word, You promise You'll never leave
What You started You'll faithfully complete
Have Your way in me
